3. Obligations

- 3.1. Trive SA's obligations under POPIA are, inter alia:
 - 3.1.1. To only collect Personal Information that we require for a specific purpose;
 - 3.1.2. To ensure that the collected Personal Information is relevant and up to date;
 - 3.1.3. To apply reasonable security measures to protect the Personal Information;
 - 3.1.4. To only keep the collected Personal Information for as long as we require it; and
 - 3.1.5. To adequately delete or dispose of the Personal Information once it is no longer required.

4. Minimum Requirements for Determining Compliance with POPIA

- 4.1. Trive SA shall continuously monitor all systems in order to understand the Personal Information that is being collected and held, as well as where such Personal Information is being held, in order to identify any potential gaps.
- 4.2. The Information Officer has ensured that a Compliance Framework has been developed and implemented, and that such Framework is continuously monitored, maintained and updated when necessary.
- 4.3. A comprehensive assessment has been conducted of all internal systems to ensure that adequate measures and standards are in place to ensure compliance with the conditions for the lawful processing of Personal Information, and to establish which profiles need to be added and identify what access permissions need to be modified, granted or removed.
- 4.4. Trive SA has adequate policies and procedures in place relating to and regulating the dissemination of any Personal Information into and out of Trive SA.
- 4.5. Trive SA has developed a PAIA and POPIA Manual, which we monitor, maintain and have made available as prescribed by both PAIA and POPIA.
- 4.6. Internal measures have been developed, and adequate systems have been put into place, to allow for the processing of requests for information or access thereto by Data

Subjects, and internal awareness sessions and training is provided to all relevant employees regarding the provisions and requirements of POPIA.

- 4.7. The Information Officer shall, upon request, furnish copies of the PAIA and POPIA Manual to a Data Subject upon having received the relevant completed request forms, and upon having received payment of the prescribed fees as determined by the Regulator.

5. Collection of Personal Information

- 5.1. The below must be considered when collecting Personal Information from Data Subjects:
 - 5.1.1. Whether there are legitimate grounds for collecting and using the Personal Information being collected.
 - 5.1.2. Whether there is a lawful purpose for which the Personal Information is being collected.
 - 5.1.3. Whether there are any limitations on the processing or further processing of the Personal Information.
 - 5.1.4. The extent of the Personal Information that is required to prevent the collection of excessive Personal Information.
 - 5.1.5. The retention periods and requirements applicable to Personal Information and the destruction processes and procedures that need to be followed once the Personal Information is no longer required.
 - 5.1.6. The right of Data Subjects to request such Personal Information and query the use thereof.
 - 5.1.7. The security measures required to prevent the unauthorised or unlawful processing of Personal Information or access to Personal Information, including, but not limited to, accidental breach, loss, destruction, or damage to Personal Information.

6. Conditions for the Lawful Processing of Personal Information

- 6.1. POPIA provides for 8 (eight) conditions for the lawful processing of Personal Information by or for a Responsible Party, namely:

- 6.1.1. Accountability;
 - 6.1.2. Processing Limitation;
 - 6.1.3. Purpose Specification;
 - 6.1.4. Further Processing Limitation;
 - 6.1.5. Information Quality;
 - 6.1.6. Openness;
 - 6.1.7. Security Safeguards; and
 - 6.1.8. Data Subject Participation.
- 6.2. Trive SA has implemented the required policies, processes and procedures to give effect to the above conditions.
- 6.3. More information relating to these conditions, as well as information as to how Trive SA is complying therewith, can be found in the PAIA and POPIA Manual.

7. Safeguarding of Personal Information

- 7.1. POPIA makes it obligatory for Trive SA to put the security of our Data Subject's data first. Therefore, it is of utmost importance that we protect and manage the Personal Information that we process to the best of our ability. This pertains to the Personal Information of our clients, as well as our employees.
- 7.2. Trive SA will take all reasonable measures, using appropriate technical and organization systems, as well as administrative processes and safeguards, to ensure the integrity and confidentiality of Personal Information under its control, and prevent the theft, loss, damage, unauthorized destruction, unlawful access or processing thereof, and identify any potential internal and external risks relating thereto.
- 7.3. Trive SA undertakes to only contract with Operators who apply the required POPIA security measures and will take all reasonable measures to ensure that such Operators immediately report any breaches, or reasonable suspicion of breaches, to Trive SA.
- 7.4. As per the provisions of POPIA, Trive SA shall immediately report any identified Data Subject's Personal Information that has been found to be stolen, lost or corrupted to the Information Regulator, as well as to the affected Data Subject.

8. Retention of Records

- 8.1. POPIA provides that records of Personal Information must not be kept by the Responsible Party any longer than is necessary for achieving the purpose for which the information was collected. In light of the above, Personal Information shall only be retained by Trive SA for as long as is necessary to perform the required function or purpose, after which the information shall be destroyed, deleted or de-identified as soon as reasonably possible.
- 8.2. Trive SA shall retain Personal Information for a period of 5 (five) years after the termination of the business relationship with a particular Data Subject.

9. Rights of Data Subjects Regarding Direct Marketing by Means of Unsolicited Electronic Communications, Directories and Automated Decision Making

- 9.1. POPIA requires Trive SA, as the Responsible Party, to obtain consent from the Data Subject before any Personal Information can be processed for the purposes of direct marketing.
- 9.2. Trive SA shall provide the Data Subject with a consent form to sign at onboarding stage.
- 9.3. Trive SA's Onboarding Client Associates shall ensure that the consent form is duly signed by the Data Subject and that he/she clearly specifies the method of communication to which they consent. This consent form shall be saved and securely filed in the Data Subject's client file.
- 9.4. Trive SA shall only send direct marketing materials to Data Subjects who have opted in for such marketing materials. Trive SA shall not send any direct marketing materials to any Data Subjects that have opted out for such marketing materials.

10. Consequences of Non-Compliance

- 10.1. Trive SA has appointed its Chief Operations Officer as the custodian of Personal Information.
- 10.2. POPIA provides for penalties of up to R 1 million and/or 12 months imprisonment for non-compliance with the Act, and penalties up to R 10 million and/or 10 years' imprisonment for more serious offences.

11.Contact Information

11.1. The following people are to be contacted for any POPIA related queries:
